

Look inside Space by Rob Lloyd Jones

Summer 2

Key Grammar:

To use:

- leaving spaces between words
- write sentences which use 'and' to include more
- to punctuate sentences using a capital letter and a full stop, question mark or exclamation mark
- using a capital letter for names of people, places, the days of the week and the personal pronoun 'I'.

About the Author:

Rob Lloyd Jones is a children's writer. His books have won awards, including the Royal Society Young People's Book Prize, and his debut novel WILD BOY was named one of the five best of the year in the prestigious Branford Boase Award. He has also written picture books, fairy tales, books about history and books with flaps.

Audience: Young Readers 5-7 year olds

Key Outcome: To write an information double page spread which includes an introduction, a flap with sentences providing further information for the reader and a flap which poses and answers a question.

Other books to read by the same author:

Wild Boy
Jake Atlas and the Tomb of the Emerald
Snake
The Story of Robin Hood
The Story of Football
The Tortoise and the Eagle

About the Book:

This is a flap book packed with interesting information about space, and the amazing things that float through it - stars, moons, comets, and the planets of our solar system. Each double-page spread has a stunning colour illustration, and several flaps to lift to find out more about what's going on in the scene - such as what goes on inside the International Space Station, how astronauts visited the Moon and what they did there, as well as the history of astronomy, from Galileo to the Hubble Space Telescope.

Key Vocabulary:

Astronauts – people who go up into space

Reflecting – return/bounce back

Incredibly - extremely

Planet – balls of rock or gas

Galaxies – stars gathered together in large groups

Telescopes - to make distant objects appear nearer